

The Enfield Seniors Present.....

A New York State Adventure

Erie Canal Cruise * Turning Stone Resort & Casino
Cooperstown

June 9-10, 2015 (2 day / 1 night)

Day 1: The beginning of our journey starts with a departure of 9:00am from the Enfield Senior Center, 299 Elm St., and takes us to Herkimer, NY, a village settled half way between Syracuse and Albany. It is here you will enjoy lunch served buffet style at the Waterfront Grille. After, boarding begins on the 'Lil Diamond II for a narrated cruise along the Erie Canal. You will hear fascinating narration describing the sights, history, and the legends of the waterway on this 90-minute Lock Cruise. Experience the thrill of being lowered 20 feet inside the lock walls. After, we board the coach to arrive at our accommodations for the evening, the Turning Stone Resort and Casino, located in Verona, NY. Upon arrival you will receive the existing bonus package.

Day 2: After breakfast, at the hotel, it is time to board the bus and travel to Fly Creek Cider Mill & Orchard, located in Fly Creek, NY. The Mill was built in 1856 and it didn't take long for the sweet cider to earn a reputation for its wonderful sweetness and taste. Eventually the Cider Mill added on the Marketplace, where you will have time to shop and maybe even grab a quick bite to eat. This afternoon we will be in Cooperstown, NY where you have admission into the Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, home to the greatest players of the game and celebrating 75 years!! The Museum is comprised of three areas; the Museum itself, the actual Hall of Fame, and a Research Library all working together to collect, preserve, and exhibit the collection. Once you are done in the Museum you will have time to walk around and enjoy the area before heading for home. Our estimated arrival back in Enfield is 7:00pm.
